

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2183 - SB 2299

January 28, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Allows a teacher in a local school system to remain employed or receive pay from public funds for regular full-time employment after reaching the age of 70.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumes the effect of this bill is to bring state law into conformity with present practice in Tennessee. The present practice in Tennessee school systems is to allow teachers who reach 70 years of age to continue to teach if they choose to do so and otherwise remain eligible to teach

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James A. Davenport".

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

HB 2183 - SB 2299